Reasons for Allowance

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest the claimed invention. Specifically, the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest creating an updated plurality of files, wherein the updated plurality of files includes a plurality of edits to the plurality of original files to create the updated plurality of files, wherein the updated plurality of files have a different order and a different arrangement than the plurality of original files; and compressing the updated plurality of files into a new archive file according to the order and the arrangement stored in the structure file, wherein the new archive's order and arrangement is the same as the original archive file's order and arrangement.

5. The prior art of record, Narayanaswamy teaches a method for updating an original plurality of files within an original archive file comprising: recording an order and an arrangement of the original archive file in a structure file, creating an updated plurality of files, wherein the updated plurality of files includes a plurality of edits to the plurality of original files to create the updated plurality of files; and compressing the updated plurality of files into the archive file according to the order and the arrangement stored in the structure file. In addition, the prior art of record, Sommerer teaches extracting and archiving JAR files to demonstrate that the order and arrangement of the archive file of Narayanaswamy would remain the same before and after the modification of the deployment files because Narayanaswamy does not teach modifications that would modify the order of the files. However, Narayanaswamy and Sommerer fail to teach the independent claims as recited wherein the updated plurality of files have a different order and a different arrangement than the plurality of original files; and compressing the updated plurality of files into a new archive file according to the order and the arrangement stored in the structure file, wherein the new archive's order and arrangement is the same as the original archive file's order and arrangement.

6. Any comment considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
